Mary Reading

Matthew 1:16

... and Jacob was the father of Joseph,
the husband of Mary,
of whom Jesus was born, who is called the Christ.

Luke 1:27

The virgin's name was Mary. The angel came to her and said, “Greetings, O favored one, the Lord is with you!”

Luke 1:35

The angel answered her, “The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be called holy—the Son of God.

Luke 1:38

And Mary said, “Behold, I am the servant of the Lord; let it be to me according to your word.”

Luke 1:41

Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit, exclaimed with a loud cry, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!

Luke 1:46

And Mary said, “My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for he has looked on the humble estate of his servant. From now on all generations will call me blessed;

Luke 1:52

And Mary said, “The Lord has brought down the mighty from their thrones and exalted those of humble estate; He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty. He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy, as he spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and to his offspring forever.”

Luke 2:6

While they were there, the time came for Mary to give birth. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in swaddling cloths and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

Luke 2:19

Mary treasured up all these things, pondering them in her heart.

Luke 2:25

Guided by the Spirit, Simeon took the child in his arms, blessed them, and said to his mother Mary, “This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed—and a sword will pierce your own soul too.”

Matthew 2:10

When the Wise Men saw the star, they rejoiced exceedingly with great joy.

And going into the house they saw the child with Mary his mother, and they fell down and worshiped him.

Luke 2:41

When Jesus was twelve years old, they went to Jerusalem for the Feast of the Passover.

When the feast was ended, as they were returning, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem.

After three days of searching his parents found him in the temple, sitting among the religious teachers.

His mother, Mary, said to him, "Son, why have you treated us so? Your father and I have been searching for you in great distress." He said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" And they did not understand the saying that he spoke to them.

Luke 2:51

His mother treasured up all these things in her heart.

John 2:1

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee. When the wine ran out, Mary, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does this have to do with me?

My hour has not yet come." Mary then said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

Mark 6:2

And on the Sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get these things? What is the wisdom given to him?

How are such mighty works done by his hands? Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary?

Luke 18:20

And Jesus said to the man, "You know the commandments: 'Do not commit adultery, Do not murder, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honor your father and your mother.'"

Matthew 12:46

While he was still speaking to the people, his mother and his brothers stood outside, asking to speak to him. But he replied, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?" And stretching out his hand toward his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother."

Luke 11:27

A woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to Jesus, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts at which you nursed!" But he said, "Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and keep it!"

Matthew 10:36

And Jesus said, "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me."

John 19:25

Standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son!" Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!"

And from that hour the disciple took her into his own home.

Acts 1

After his suffering, Jesus presented himself alive to his apostles by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. After Jesus was taken up into heaven, they returned to Jerusalem, to the upper room where they were staying. All of these with one accord were devoting themselves to prayer, together with the women, the brothers of Jesus, and Mary his mother.
